MimioPad

Sometimes teachers can feel like they're on a leash. There they are – in front of the class – stuck. Now they can use the interactive whiteboard from anywhere in the room, so both teachers and students can control what's happening from first row to last. It's the interactive approach to better interaction.

Hand the MimioPad™ wireless pen tablet off to students who may be too shy to feel comfortable in front of the class. Have them write, point, and click, right from their desk. They'll learn more and build confidence at the same time. It's time to break free from the front.

- Wireless control of the front-of-the-class whiteboard from up to 30 feet away.
- Teachers are free to move around their class, so they can pay special attention to individual students and manage their classroom more effectively.

- Plug-and-play simplicity, right out of the box.
- Multiple tablets can connect to one computer.
- Convenient stylus storage slot with tether cord, so it won't get lost.
- Made to be held or used flat, on a desk.
- 16 shortcut keys to the common functions of MimioStudio™ classroom software.
- Uses rechargeable batteries.

Slim, lightweight ergonomic design makes it easy to hold.
